

Ciao ‘Navigli’

The quartiere is full of hidden gems, and this is a collection of our favorites: start from the top five and discover them all. Buon giro!

VICOLO DEI LAVANDAI

Alzaia Naviglio Grande, 14

The “Launderers' Alley”, situated on the vibrant Naviglio Grande, represents a glimpse of the Old Milan, where the first delivery laundry business was born and raised from the XVIII century until the 1950s.

SPAZIO ALDA MERINI

Via Magolfa, 30

Alda Merini has been one of the most important poet in Italy, who grew up exactly in this neighborhood. To her is dedicated the “Spazio Alda Merini”, a cultural space and a home museum filled with her favorite objects. The space is also a coworking space and a bar.

BACKDOOR 43

Ripa di Porta Ticinese, 43

The smallest bar in the world is just a few minutes away from the House of Stories. Hidden on the side of Naviglio Grande, Backdoor 43 is an exclusive bar with customized cocktails, only available on bookings up to 4 people.

ANTONIOLI BOUTIQUE

Via Pasquale Paoli, 1

This is for the shopping lovers. Where there used to be a silent cinema, there is now the Antonioli boutique, a fashion store filled with luxury brands that makes you feel inside an art gallery.

IL DISCOMANE

Alzaia Naviglio Grande, 38

Il Discomane is an iconic and historic store, opened since 1978, that really has it all: a view on the Naviglio Grande and an infinite stock of precious CDs, vinyl, cassettes, DVDs and books.
